

661—404.2(97A) Application for temporary incapacity status. An application for temporary incapacity status may be filed in accordance with rule 661—401.1(97A). The application must be filed by the member or by a person with legal standing in relation to the member in the event that the member is unable to do so. It shall be accompanied by a copy of the first report of injury, if one is available; workers' compensation medical reports and determinations; and all other workers' compensation documents related to the injury or other medical reports and records as may be available.

An application may be filed at any time; however, it shall not become effective until all of the elements of temporary incapacity have been met. If the incapacity has ended by the time the application is made, then the application for temporary incapacity status shall include a medical release to return to duty.
